Daily Bible Reading Plan

2010

*Your word is a lamp to my feet
and a light for my path. (Ps 119:105 NIV)*

The God who made us has chosen to speak to us! Our greatest need is to hear from God, to let his light shine into our lives and hearts. What he has to say is in the Bible. Those who read it find light and life.

This schedule is designed to help you read through the Bible in a year. Separate readings for each day from both the Old and New Testaments permit you to divide your reading between morning and evening, or personal and family devotions, or to read the New Testament one year and the Old another. Sunday readings are taken from the Psalms and there are special selections for Easter and Christmas. This plan follows the natural divisions within the text (rather than assigning an arbitrary number of chapters or verses each day), to help you better understand its meaning.

These suggestions may help you read consistently and profitably:

- Pick a place and time to read each day.
- Pray for understanding before you read.
- Preserve what you learn—jot down your thoughts, observations, prayers.
- Practice what God says to you.
- Partner with another(s). Pray for each other and share what you are learning.
- Persist! Keep at it!

Questions such as these may help you discern what God is saying:

1. What do you learn about God? yourself? Christ? salvation?
2. Is there in this passage
  - a truth to believe?
  - a promise to claim?
  - a sin to avoid?
  - a command to obey?
  - an example to follow?
3. What one thing do I most need to remember and practice? What exactly will I do?

May God speak to you this year through the Bible, his Word.
